

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Made from
Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly

Another Idea.
They say a fool and his money are soon parted; but it seems to me the two are lucky ever to have got together in the first place.—Sphere.

Christian Fortitude.
As the vacant air we breathe is full of germs of this world's life, so what seems the empty things of common life are full of potencies for life eternal. Our passing spites and worries may be sordid enough; but the thankfulness and patience which overcome them belong to a world which passeth not away.—Henry M. Gwatkin.

Lecture at M. E. Church Wednesday Evening, March 20.

The M. E. church has secured L. K. Babcock of Topeka, Ind., to deliver a lecture at the church Wednesday evening, March 25, on the subject of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster in Europe." Hon. S. K. Gainard, state senator of Indiana has the following to say of Mr. Babcock: "To Whom it may Concern:

"For some years I have had experience in hiring lecturers and conducting lecture courses. To any committee that is seeking for a strong, entertaining and instructive lecture, I would unhesitatingly say, if possible, secure Mr. L. K. Babcock in his lecture, 'The Hoosier Schoolmaster in Europe.' Neither committee nor audience will be disappointed."
